Subject: Joint Venture Agreement Approval Letter

Dear Mukesh Dalal,

Congratulations! Your request for an unpopulated Joint Venture Agreement between Nish Consulting Inc and Dfuse Technologies, Inc. doing business as "NISH Dfuse Consulting, LLC" has been approved. Please see the below CFR citation for additional important information.

13 CFR 124.513

2) Where a joint venture has been established and approved by SBA for one 8(a) contract, a second or third 8(a) contract may be awarded to that joint venture provided an addendum to the joint venture agreement, setting forth the performance requirements on that second or third contract, is provided to and approved by SBA prior to contract award.

(i) After approving the structure of the joint venture in connection with the first contract, SBA will review only the addendums relating to performance of work on successive contracts.

(ii) SBA must approve the addendums prior to the award of any successive 8(a) contract to the joint venture.

(f) Contract execution. Where SBA has approved a joint venture, the procuring activity will execute an 8(a) contract in the name of the joint venture entity.

(g) Amendments to joint venture agreement. All amendments to the joint venture agreement must be approved by SBA.

(h) Inspection of records. SBA may inspect the records of the joint venture without notice at any time deemed necessary.

(i) Performance of work reports. An 8(a) Participant to a joint venture must describe how it is meeting or has met the applicable performance of work requirements for each 8(a) contract it performs as a joint venture.

(1) As part of its annual review, the 8(a) Participant(s) to the joint venture must explain for each 8(a) contract performed during the year how the performance of work requirements are being met for the contract.

(2) At the completion of every 8(a) contract awarded to a joint venture, the 8(a) Participant(s) to the joint venture must submit a report to the local SBA district office explaining how the performance of work requirements were met for the contract.

Please note, your Joint Venture Agreement is eligible for up to three awards in two years, starting from the date of the first award.

Once again, congratulations and we wish you much success!

Sincerely,
